DIOCESE OF PLYMOUTH

A Parish of the Catholic Diocese of Plymouth
Registered Charity No: 213227

Please pray for our sick and housebound parishioners:

Launceston: Stefan Rymkiewicz, Barbara Daly,
Josef Mazgaj and Geoff Penn.

Holsworthy: Peggy Raymond-Barker, Bill Cousins and Bodham Mazurkiewicz.

Bude: Irene Hamilton, Margaret Lester, Jean Pirie.

May is traditionally the month of Our Lady. One of her 50 titles is Mother of Divine Grace, a powerful source of help. We have an image of Our Lady of Divine Help just above the confessionals at Launceston, a good aid to prayer.

Lourdes Diocesan Pilgrimage: 1st – 8th June. I should be pleased to take any petitions to Our Lady. Please let me have them by Pentecost Sunday, 27th May.

During the season of Easter we continue to say the Apostles Creed, which is closely linked with Baptism, rather than the Nicene Creed.

Copies of my Parish Report, the AGM minutes and reports are available in print and on-line. A balance sheet of our financial state is displayed on the notice boards.

APF Red Boxes: Bude: please return these to Debbie Vickerstaff as soon as possible. At Launceston, Joe Hickey and Philip Stephenson have volunteered to be the Red Box reps. Please let them have any full boxes. If you would like to have a Red Box, please ask.

Secular Clergy Fund: This annual collection for sick and retired priests will take place on 26th – 27th May. Please be generous. You are asked to use the envelopes provided.

Food Bank in Launceston: at present they need especially: tinned sponge puddings, powdered potato and small bags of sugar.

A local group of Scouts and Cubs will be visiting Launceston church on 26th May to find out more about us.

Josef Mazgaj is now in Cedar Grange Nursing Home. I'm delighted that several of our Polish community are visiting him regularly. He has improved slightly.

A Day with Mary at Buckfast Abbey: Saturday 9th June. See poster.

Holsworthy Mission Community is holding an Ecumenical Day on Saturday May 26th from 10am - 2pm in Holsworthy Parish Church and Memorial Hall. It starts with a Service in the Church and ends with a Bring and Share lunch in the hall. Further details from the Revd Chris Hardwick 01409 253547 or revchrishardwick@btinternet.com

Parish Pilgrimage to Golden Manor, near Tregony, where St Cuthbert Mayne was arrested in June 1577. A visit to the Manor and nearby Barn, used as a Catholic Chapel in Penal times, will be followed by Mass at Lanherne, also associated with our Patron. Programme: meet at Sclerder on Wednesday 20th June early pm. Minibus to Golden, tea-break at Trewithen Gardens, Mass at Lanherne at 5.30 pm and food at nearby pub. Cost £10. This is a joint venture with Saltash and Sclerder Parish. More details to follow.

Annual Cornish Pilgrimage to Walsingham from Sunday 23rd September to Saturday 29th September. Coach travel with various pick-up points. Cost: £350. See poster for details.

Clear Voices: A Summer Festival of Theology at Buckfast Abbey, 14th -17th July. See www.clearvoices.co.uk or phone 01364 645390. Flyers available. Book early.

“Smartwater” deterrent has been applied to our roof at Launceston and, following a break-in a few weeks ago, the door of the boilerhouse has been strengthened.

SVP:

- The next meeting will be on Tuesday 29th May at 2.30pm in the Charles Langdon Room.
- Thank you for your continued contributions to the weekly food basket. Recently the mother of the large family we support said that, since the extra food from the church has been received, her children hurry through their main meal in order to have the sweet course which they previously could not afford. Some may find this hard to believe, but it is true.

Last Sunday I appealed for ideas for a title of my nearly finished Parish History. I had, not too seriously, suggested: “A Theological, Sociological and Historical Investigation of our Canonical Parish”. Can you find something a bit less turgid? Someone, who had better perhaps remain anonymous, suggested: “Our Mayne Hope”.

The families of Crystal and George would like to thank everyone for the warm welcome received last Saturday at the Mass of First Holy Communion.

With my prayers and good wishes,

Fr David
