The Year of Faith: from the Catechism of the Catholic Church (slightly adapted).

Paragraph 221: “God is love” (I John 4:8). God is an eternal exchange of love, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and he has destined us to share in that exchange.

Paragraph 233: Christians are baptised in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: not in their names, for there is only one God, the almighty Father, his only Son and the Holy Spirit: the Most Holy Trinity.

Paragraph 241: (The Father is revealed by the Son) For this reason the apostles confess Jesus to be “the Word”, “the image of the invisible God”

Paragraph 261: The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith. God alone can make it known to us by revealing himself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Paragraph 263 The mission of the Holy Spirit, sent by the Father in the name of the Son reveals that the Spirit is one and the same God.

Paragraph 265: By the grace of Baptism we are called to share in the life of the Blessed Trinity, here on earth in Faith and after death in eternal light.

Christmas Goodies: For several years the Catholics at Holsworthy have collected these for the Poor Clare Sisters at Lynton convent in north Devon. I am keen to continue this tradition. Boxes will be placed at Launceston and Bude. Suggestions: biscuits, mince pies, chocolates and tea, coffee and pasta. Peter and Nikki Ware have organised the collection at Holsworthy and are willing to be responsible for it again. Convents are powerhouses of prayer. Please support the nuns at Lynton.

Please keep the inserted newsletter from Launceston Food Bank with its very encouraging new developments.

The Diocese of Plymouth is seeking to appoint a Parish Finance Mentor. See noticeboard for details.
