The Year of Faith: from the Catechism of the Catholic Church (slightly adapted).

Paragraph 1007: Death is the end of earthly life. Our lives are measured by time, in the course of which we change, grow old and, as with all living beings on earth, death seems like the normal end of life. That aspect of death lends urgency to our lives: remembering our mortality helps us realise that we have only a limited time in which to bring our lives to fulfilment.

Paragraph 1016: By death the soul is separated from the body, but in the resurrection God will give incorruptible life to our body, transformed by reunion with our soul. Just as Christ is risen and lives for ever, so all of us will rise at the last day.

- ❖ The annual collection for the Secular Clergy Fund will take place today. This is to support retired and sick priests, who have given their lives in the service of their people. Please help them. I hope you will use the envelopes provided to put in your offering. You can also use Gift Aid to increase the value of your donation. Several clergy, including me, are of pensionable age and would really appreciate all the financial help you can give us.
- ❖ Don't forget my 70th Birthday celebrations in the Charles Langdon Room, with Reception and Brunch after Mass. While you are there, please help yourself to some good reading material and a prayer card of Pope Francis, look at the photos from the Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes, and buy a few parish pens.
- ❖ We are to have a Parish Audit in July and will need to review some of our current practices. I need to recruit more money counters at Launceston urgently, ideally making up a rota. Please let me know if you can help.
- ❖ The Charles Causley Festival takes place in Launceston this weekend. See poster for details.
- ❖ We now have some large-print Mass cards available if you need one.
- ❖ Please pray for Deacons Harry Heijveld and Paul Keys who are to be ordained to the priesthood on Saturday 22nd June at Plymouth Cathedral.

- ❖ Fr. David Gassor, alias Fr. David I, will be leaving Bude to live at Topsham near Exeter and hopefully take up his legal work again. Please support him in prayer. He is still poorly.
- ❖ There will be a Corpus Christi Procession at Truro at 3 pm on Sunday 23rd June. Please support this great act of witness if you can.
- ❖ Bude: Coffee Morning and Bring & Buy in aid of Street Pastors. Wednesday 19th June from 10.30 – 12 noon at St. Martin's, Killerton Road.
- ❖ The new rota for Readers and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion has been sent out. If you have not received your copy please contact the Parish Office.
- ❖ Brightlights Festival at Aylesford Priory, Kent, from 26th-29th July 2013, linked with the forthcoming World Youth Day in Rio de Janeiro. See poster and website, www.brightlights.org.uk, for details. Cost £95 including transport and meals. A group from Falmouth plans to go, and can pick up along the A30. Please contact Fr. Jon Bielawski on 01326 312763.
- ❖ Talks on the Second Vatican Council available for home use. Contact Jonathan Henderson or David Wells on 01364 645390.
- ❖ SPUC Summer Fair: Saturday, 29th June, 10.30am - 12.30pm, The Cathedral Centre, Wyndham Street West, Plymouth. Please come and support us and bag a bargain after the 10 am Mass! Coffee, tea, cakes and sale of goods /fancy goods. Swell our funds and help us continue our pro-life activities and education.

With my prayers and good wishes,

Fr David
