The Year of Faith: from the Catechism of the Catholic Church (slightly adapted).

Paragraph 1851: It is precisely in the Passion, when the mercy of Christ is about to vanquish it, that sin most clearly manifests its violence and its many forms: unbelief, murderous hatred, shunning and mockery by the leaders and the people, Pilate's cowardice and the cruelty of the soldiers, Judas' betrayal – so bitter to Jesus, Peter's denial and the disciples' flight. However, at the very hour of darkness, the hour of the prince of this world, the sacrifice of Christ secretly becomes the source from which the forgiveness of our sins will pour forth inexhaustibly.

- ❖ Annual Mass Count 2013: Totals for 29th October were 79 at Bude and 110 at Launceston. During the whole month our average attendance was 202. We have therefore achieved our target of 200. I'm really pleased about this. Thank you for your support.
- ❖ Apologies for the disruption of Mass at Bude. At the time of writing this newsletter, our church at Bude is still being re-ordered, or to be more accurate, restored to what it was, and re-decorated. Further news will be made public as soon as possible. Meanwhile, I should like to express my gratitude to our parish helpers who work diligently to prepare for the Mass in the nearby URC church. I should also like to thank Rev. Barbara Bennett for her kind permission to use the URC church. I look forward to showing her around our renovated church,
- ❖ Apologies too for the lack of a Mass on Tuesday. The Headmaster who was my colleague in south London for twenty years, died suddenly a few days ago. He was a Catholic and his widow has asked me to help at the Requiem. Clearly I shall need to be away for some time. Please pray for the repose of the soul of Jim Leeming.

- ❖ The next meeting of the SVP will be at 2 pm on Tuesday 5th November in the Charles Langdon Room, Launceston.
- ❖ Please note that the next Youth Mass will be on Sunday 17th November to avoid clashing with Remembrance Sunday on 10th November.
- ❖ November is the month when we remember the Holy Souls. After the Mass on 10th November there will be a very short service in our church yard, weather permitting, when we will pray for them and of course anyone known to ourselves.
- ❖ A day with St. Benedict at Buckfast Abbey on Saturday 16th November beginning at 10 am. See notice for details.
- ❖ Please pray for Clive Hammond (Bude) who is seriously ill.
- ❖ Christians Together in Bude, Stratton & District: there is a Council Meeting at 7.30pm on Thursday 7th November in the Pilgrim Room (off the main hall), St. Martin's URC Church, Killerton Road. Anyone who would like to come and hear about the work of Christians Together in our local area would be most welcome.
- ❖ St. Michael's Catholic Secondary School, Camborne has various staff vacancies: see poster for details.
- ❖ Launceston: Distribution of Holy Communion. I have slightly altered the new way, and I think that works even better. I will remind you just before you come up. I know this can be a bit tedious, but after a few weeks I will mercifully be silent

With my prayers and good wishes,

Fr David

Going into hospital?

If you would like to see a Catholic chaplain, please ring:

For Barnstaple Hospital:	Fr Paul Andrew (PP Barnstaple):	01271 343312
For Derriford Hospital:	Rev. Simon Fletcher: mobile:	07854 816523
For Exeter Hospital:	Fr John Watkins:	01392 27472
For Royal Cornwall Hospital, Treliske:	Fr Gilmour McDermott:	01872 272291

Most hospitals do not inform chaplains of incoming Catholics, so you have to make the first move. Alternatively, keep me informed and I can ask the chaplain to call.
