From the Catechism of the Catholic Church (slightly adapted).

Paragraph 577: At the beginning of the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus issued a solemn warning in which he presented God's law, given on Sinai during the first covenant, in light of the grace of the New Covenant.

Paragraph 2082: What God commands he makes possible by his grace.

❖ Building works:

Launceston: the foundations are now in place for the new garage and store-room to be built on the site of the old hall. Good progress is being made on the new driveway, and plans are underway to construct a reduced perimeter fence to replace the old one, which is gradually collapsing.

Bude: the roof and side window are on the new extension. This will enable interior work to be carried out more quickly. And Kivells, the local estate agent, says that several people have expressed an interest in renting the former Presbytery.

- ❖ Monday 24th February: an Ecumenical Service to mark the 475th anniversary of the Dissolution of Launceston Priory (24th February 1539) at 6pm in St. Thomas' Church. Hot drinks and snacks provided after the Service by the local Girl Guides. Come and support us.
- ❖ PPC Meeting after Mass at Launceston on Sunday 23rd February to discuss the building programme and its financial implications and, of course, anything else you would like to raise.

- ❖ Please pray for Fr. Brian Kenwrick who will be inducted as Parish Priest of Newquay on Thursday 20th February. I will be there to represent our parish.

There is also a Youth Pilgrimage at the same time, for young adults of 14+ at a much reduced rate. See posters for details, or ask me. I try to go to Lourdes every year and it would be a real joy to take some of you with me. Do give this matter some thought.
