From the Catechism of the Catholic Church (slightly adapted);

Paragraph 636: By the expression 'He descended into hell', the Apostles' Creed confesses that Jesus did really die and through his death for us conquered death and the devil 'who has the power of death' (Heb 2:14)

Paragraph 1010: What is essentially new about Christian death is this: through Baptism, the Christian has already 'died with Christ' sacramentally, in order to live a new life; and if we die in Christ's grace, physical death completes this 'dying with Christ' and so completes our incorporation into him in his redeeming act.

Paragraph 1014: The Church encourages us to prepare ourselves for the hour of our death: in the ancient litany of the saints, for instance, she has us pray: 'From a sudden and unforeseen death, deliver us, O Lord', to ask the Mother of God to intercede for us 'at the hour of our death' in the Hail Mary; and to entrust ourselves to St. Joseph, the patron of a happy death.

- ❖ The Liturgies and devotions for the Easter Triduum have now been made public. Please see the notice boards or take a flier home. Details are also available on our website.
- ❖ Bude: The tenant family has now moved into the former Presbytery. Please do not park in the lower car park or block the access to it.
- ❖ Bude: We have a smart new exterior notice board, thanks to Martin Vigg and Dave Thomas.
- ❖ Bude: I have been in contact with David Gridley who will visit us soon to solve the problem of our new organ's rather loud background noise.
- ❖ A Day with Mary at Lanherne Convent on Saturday 3rd May. See notice board for details.
- ❖ Sunday 4th May: The annual Flores de Mayo and Santacrusan Procession organised by the Filipino community starts at 4.15 pm in the city centre, Plymouth. Many of our numerous Filipino community will be there, but all are invited. Bishop Mark will be there too.
- ❖ The Chrism Mass, when the Bishop blesses the oils used in the sacraments, will be held on Wednesday 16th April at Plymouth Cathedral. The Mass begins at 5.00 pm, but I should like to leave earlier and have lunch with friends from Torquay. I should like to take a representative from the Launceston end of the parish to join me – free lunch as well. Please ask.
- ❖ Plymouth Diocese Catechetical Summer Camps at Buckfast Abbey: Details are now available. Early booking is essential. See notice boards and ask me for application forms.
