From the Catechism of the Catholic Church (slightly adapted):

Paragraph 524: When the Church celebrates the liturgy of Advent each year, she makes present this ancient expectancy of the Messiah, for by sharing in the long preparation for the Saviour's first coming, the faithful renew their ardent desire for his second coming.

From beginning to end, the Christian's spiritual experience rests on the conviction that God himself is its beginning, its cause and its end. We must pray as if everything depended on us. St. Augustine replied to the monk Pelagius, who asserted that we can achieve salvation by our own efforts, with this prayer: 'Lord, command me what you will, but give me what you command.' For it is true that, in the Christian life, all is grace.

Collections: 23.11.2014: Launceston £141.95 Bude £128.89

Thank you for your generosity

- ✠ Requiem of Margaret Mary Goodyer: Grateful thanks to those of you who helped with the refreshments and those who attended the Mass.
- ✠ To mark the season of Advent we will be using the Latin plainchant version of the Sanctus (Holy, holy...) and Agnus Dei (Lamb of God...). The notes and words are in your hymn books, numbers 470 and 473.
- ✠ This Liturgical Year is the Year of Mark, whose Gospel is the shortest and probably the earliest of the four.
- ✠ The Finance Committee met last Sunday at long last. I'm sorry I didn't do anything about this earlier. A copy of the Minutes and a very detailed Report from the Parish Treasurer are posted. If you would like your own copy, please ask me.
- ✠ Monday 8th December is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of Our Lady. Fr. Kevin has kindly offered to say Mass at Bude at 10am.
