From the Catechism of the Catholic Church (slightly adapted):

Paragraph 1795: 'Conscience is man's most secret core and his sanctuary. There he is alone with God whose voice echoes in his depths'

Paragraph 1797: For the man who has committed evil, the verdict of his conscience remains a pledge of conversion and of hope.

Paragraph 1798: A well-formed conscience is upright and truthful. It formulates its judgments according to reason, in conformity with the true good willed by the wisdom of the Creator.

Paragraph 1802: The Word of God is a light for our path. We must assimilate it in faith and prayer, and put it into practice. This is how moral conscience is formed.
