From the Catechism of the Catholic Church (slightly adapted):

Paragraph 1723: All bow down before wealth. Wealth is that to which the multitude of men pay an instinctive homage. They measure happiness by wealth; and by wealthy they measure respectability...It is a homage resulting from a profound faith...that with wealth he may do all things.

Paragraph 2447: The works of mercy are...feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and burying the dead.

- ❖ The Harvest Supper at Callington was excellent and enjoyable: a four-course meal with wine and song. The Portreeve of Callington and the Mayor of Bude were present. My thanks to the team of parishioners who put so much effort into making the evening a great success, and to Marie Towl who took some lovely photos. If anyone feels moved to organise socials in Bude and Launceston, I will offer to supply the wine.
- ❖ Many thanks to the Callington Community for inviting all to the superb Harvest Supper and entertainment on Sunday. It was a great evening. Lea Deely, Chair of PPC.
- ❖ Please pray for Geoff Penn who died last Wednesday. The Requiem will be at Launceston on Monday 19th October at 11am, followed by cremation at Bodmin.
- ❖ Please pray also for the soul of Sister Mary Frances, formerly of Sclerder Abbey when the Carmelites were in residence. I have been asked to preside at her Requiem Mass on Monday.
- ❖ Tuesday: Mass as usual but no Adoration and Benediction. I have to be at yet another clergy meeting.
- ❖ Our Safeguarding reps at Bude have resigned, having done the job for a number of years. Would anyone like to take this on? Please ask me.
- ❖ The results of last week's Mass Count: Bude – 68, Launceston – 89, Callington – 56. Overall number about average, but could be better.
- ❖ Red boxes: please return these soon as our reps need to make financial returns. For further information please ask Debbie Vickerstaff in Bude or Philip Stephenson in Launceston.

- ❖ I am hoping to get some mugs and tea towels with our three churches on them. But I need some black and white line drawings. Are there any artists among you who could produce these for us?
- ❖ Parish buildings: I have spent a lot of money on all three buildings and much still needs to be done, especially at Launceston: the lighting and lead roof need to be renovated and the main ceiling needs repainting. I shall be distributing some blue envelopes next Sunday and ask you to offer as much as you can afford, and Gift Aid it if you can. This is a once only appeal for funds which I hope not to have to repeat. Well, not for quite a while. Please return these to the marked boxes at the back of the church or in the porch. I really would be grateful for your support. Let's make our three churches really beautiful.
- ❖ October is the month of the Holy Rosary. Our Rosary group now comprises at least four different nationalities. Will you consider joining them after the 10am Mass every Saturday? We need to pray seriously for our lapsed Catholics, especially families, that they will be led by the Holy Spirit to a renewal of their Faith.
- ❖ Fr. Bernard Jones O.Carm: Many Bude parishioners, and probably some from Launceston and Holsworthy, will remember Fr. Bernard Jones, our retired Carmelite "Priest in Residence" from about 2004-2008. He always remembers his time in Bude with great affection. He is now seriously ill in Taunton Hospital. Please pray for him. Message from Angela Ball
- ❖ The Books of Remembrance need to be updated during this month in time for November, the month of the Holy Souls. Please write any details in the back of the book.
- ❖ Gen Verdi Concert at St. Peter's, Crownhill, Plymouth at 8pm on November 6th. Tickets are £5 – please phone St. Peter's parish office on 01752 701660. Further details to follow.
- ❖ Just a reminder: tea, coffee and biscuits are available at all our churches after Mass. Come and join us.

With my prayers and good wishes,

Fr David
