Paragraph 1021: Death puts an end to human life as the time open to either accepting or rejecting the divine grace manifested in Christ.

Paragraph 1030: All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven.

Paragraph 1022: At the evening of life, we shall be judged on our love.

- ❖ Bude: Dorothy Coleman, one of our long-standing regulars, has been admitted to Woodland Rest Home in St Austell. As you will know, she has become increasingly frail and confused. Please pray for her. I should like to thank those of you who have looked after her so devotedly during the last few months.
