From the Catechism of the Catholic Church (slightly adapted):

Paragraph 755: The Church is a cultivated field, the tillage of God. On that land the ancient olive tree grows whose holy roots were the prophets and in which the reconciliation of Jews and Gentiles has been brought about and will be brought about again. That land, like a choice vineyard, has been planted by the heavenly cultivator. Yet the true vine is Christ who gives life and fruitfulness to the branches, that is, to us, who through the Church remain in Christ, without whom we can do nothing.

- ❖ October is the Month of the Holy Rosary. As Our Lady said at Fátima: “Pray the Rosary for Peace”. Timely advice.
- ❖ Annual Mass Count figures for 1st October: Bude 77, Launceston 92, Callington 26: total 195.
- ❖ I have recently been given six chasubles (Mass vestments) and twenty servers’ albs and cinctures (red cord) following a visit to Penzance parish: a wonderful gift. I happened to be in the right place at the right time.
- ❖ Our second attempt to secure Heritage Lottery funding for roof and window repairs at Launceston was unsuccessful. Third time lucky?
- ❖ However, we have received another bequest for over £22,000. We are now perhaps in a position to fund the repairs ourselves. I will, of course, keep you all informed.
- ❖ Parish Pilgrimage to Fátima: Thank you for your generous financial support. Even in Fátima I was not allowed to buy anything. I return feeling refreshed and invigorated. I must thank Val Williams and her helpers for their hard work and meticulous organisation.
- ❖ Fr. Jacek Kostuch from Plymouth is planning to start a Polish catechetical group for North Cornwall from Wednesday 11th October, using Launceston as a base:
