From the Catechism of the Catholic Church (slightly adapted):

Why Did the Word Become Flesh?

- Paragraph 457: In order to save us by reconciling us with God
Paragraph 458: So that thus we might know God's love
Paragraph 459: To be our model of holiness
Paragraph 460: To make us partakers of the divine nature

- ❖ Thank you for making Rev Deacon Richard Edwards and his wife Ros so welcome as he begins his ministry at our three churches. What a wonderful Christmas present for our parish! Please address him as Deacon Richard.
- ❖ Former Parish Mass Books: I propose to send the fairly new large-print versions to some nuns in Ghana who run a school there. I shall keep a small number of normal-size versions here, just in case. The very old ones, some 15 boxfuls, have already made a one-way journey to the recycling depot.
- ❖ Launceston: with the help of our musicians I should like to form a small choir in the New Year, to encourage more enthusiastic singing and more variety. Any offers of help?
- ❖ Some dates in January:
 - Tuesday 9th: Induction of Fr. John Gilbert as Parish Priest of Truro at 7pm. Please pray for him and his parish.
 - Sunday 14th: White Flower retiring collection for the work of SPUC: Society for the Protection of Unborn Children.
 - Youth Mass and Meeting of the First Holy Communion class.
 - Thursday 18th – Thursday 25th: Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.
- ❖ Just a gentle reminder that the collections at the Christmas Masses are your gift to your Parish Priest. Many thanks for the donations, cards and presents already received.
- ❖ I am not planning to be away after Christmas Day. If I can assist you in any way, please feel free to contact me.

With my prayers and good wishes for a Merry Christmas and a healthy, prosperous and peaceful 2018,

Fr David
