From the Catechism of the Catholic Church (slightly adapted):

Paragraph 679: Christ is Lord of eternal life. Full right to pass definitive judgement on the works and hearts of men belongs to him as redeemer of the world. He 'acquired' this right by his cross. The Father has given 'all judgement to the Son'. Yet the Son did not come to judge, but to save and to give the life he has in himself. By rejecting grace in this life, one already judges oneself, receives according to one's works, and can even condemn oneself for all eternity by rejecting the Spirit of love.

Most hospitals do not inform chaplains of incoming Catholics, so you have to make the first move. Alternatively, keep me informed and I can ask the chaplain to call.

- ❖ Callington: After months of hard work in his limited spare time, Marcin has almost finished the improvements to the kitchen and sacristy. The large vestment cupboard with the marvellous carving of Our Lady on its door is now ready. I can now give our new vestments and servers' albs a worthy home. Congratulations and heartfelt thanks to Marcin and all who have helped with this project in any way. Now only the confessional remains to be finished.
- ❖ Launceston: Thank you to all of you who offered to bring daffodils so that our young parishioners can give them to their mothers. After the Mass the First Holy Communion group has a teaching session: please wait in the church.
- ❖ Our thanks go to a parishioner, who has asked to remain anonymous, for giving us some new altar linen.
- ❖ Next Sunday, crosses and statues are covered in red or purple as a reminder that the Passion (Suffering) of Our Lord is at hand.
- ❖ Bude: Easter Lilies: we will once again be decorating the church with lilies at Easter. If you would like a lily in remembrance of a loved one, please put all money in an envelope and print their names CLEARLY on the outside. Lilies will cost £1 each. It is requested that all envelopes be deposited in the baskets at the back of the church no later than Wednesday 21st March. There will also be a collection for other Easter flowers at Bude and Launceston on 18th March.
- ❖ Bude: there will be a Lent Lunch in the URC hall at 12 noon on Wednesday 14th March, organised by the URC and ourselves. Ros Dolphin has been asked to make the soup and needs volunteers from our church. Please contact her if able to help.
- ❖ Christians Together in Holsworthy: AGM on Tuesday 20th March at 7.30pm in the Methodist church (Blue Room). Details of Youth Worker and Food Bank. Contact Chair Sheila Granger: sheilagranger.uk@gmail.com.
- ❖ Advance notice: Plymouth Diocesan Catechetical Summer Camps, 29th July – 10th August 2018. See notice.
- ❖ Advance notice: Cornish Pilgrimage to Walsingham, 7th – 13th October. £455. See notice.

With my prayers and good wishes,

Fr David
