From the Catechism of the Catholic Church (slightly adapted):

Paragraph 607: The desire to embrace his Father's plan of redeeming love inspired Jesus' whole life, for his redemptive passion was the very reason for his Incarnation. And so he asked, 'And what shall I say? "Father, save me from this hour"? No, for this purpose I have come to this hour.' And again, 'Shall I not drink the cup which the Father has given me?' From the cross, just before 'It is finished', he said, 'I thirst.'

Paragraph 601: In particular, Jesus' redemptive death fulfils Isaiah's prophecy of the suffering Servant. Indeed Jesus himself explained the meaning of his life and death in the light of God's suffering Servant. After his Resurrection he gave this interpretation of the Scriptures to the disciples at Emmaus, and then to the apostles.
