From the Catechism of the Catholic Church (slightly adapted):

Paragraph 611: The Eucharist that Christ institutes at that moment will be the memorial of his sacrifice. Jesus includes the apostles in his own offering and bids them perpetuate it. By doing so, the Lord institutes his apostles as priests of the New Covenant: 'For their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth'.

Paragraph 612: The cup of the New Covenant, which Jesus anticipated when he offered himself at the Last Supper, is afterwards accepted by him from his Father's hands in his agony in the garden at Gethsemani, making himself 'obedient unto death'.

- ❖ Callington: For the past few weeks we have been delighted to have Sister Gabriela, of the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth, with us. She is the sister of Justina and sister-in-law of Marcin. Today will be her last appearance at Mass as she is due to return to Ghana soon. I should like to have a retiring collection for her missionary work in Africa. I have given her some books as well. If you would like to help Sister Gabriela, that would be good.
- ❖ Good Friday: there will be a retiring collection at all Services for the Holy Places of Palestine. Life there is precarious because of the violence and unrest there.
- ❖ I remind you that all the Easter collections are your offering to me, your parish priest.
- ❖ Launceston: on Wednesday 4th April, Revd. Alison Hardy, at present Assistant at Bude, will be inducted as Priest-in-Charge of Launceston Parish at the church of St Mary Magdalen at 7.30pm. I shall be present to represent our parish.

With my prayers and good wishes,

Fr David
