From the Catechism of the Catholic Church (slightly adapted):

Paragraph 523: St John the Baptist is the Lord's immediate precursor or fore-runner, sent to prepare his way. 'Prophet of the Most High', John surpasses all the prophets, of whom he is the last. He inaugurates the Gospel, already from his mother's womb welcomes the coming of Christ, and rejoices in being 'the friend of the bride-groom', whom he points out as 'the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world'. Going before Jesus 'in the spirit and power of Elijah', John bears witness to Christ in his preaching, by his Baptism of conversion, and through his martyrdom.

I shall present a Parish Report, copies of which will be available at the meeting. There will also be an opportunity for questions and comments.

- ❖ Bude: Father Kevin writes: I would like to thank everyone who signed the card and contributed to a most generous gift marking the 40th anniversary of my ordination to the priesthood at St Cuthbert Mayne. Your thoughtfulness was deeply appreciated.
- ❖ Launceston: note from Parish Secretary: Please find white envelopes at the back of the church regarding Fr David's retirement, please take one if you haven't already done so.
